

Accredited Training - Evidence based polypharmacy reviews and the 7 steps process

Venue: Hillgrove Hotel, Monaghan, Co. Monaghan

Date and time: 24th November 2022, 19:00 - 21:30, buffet meal provided from 18:00

The training equips healthcare professionals including doctors, nurses and pharmacists to undertake comprehensive person-centred medicines reviews.

Modules:

ONE – Why should we address polypharmacy

- Definition and dangers of polypharmacy
- Medication adherence
- Adverse Drug reactions

TWO – 7 Steps Methodology

- The 7 Step methodology

THREE – Change Methodology and Numbers Needed to Treat (NNT)

- Implementing Change Methodology
- Case study example of the 7 steps and NNT in practice

Educators:

- Dr. Paul Ryan, ICGP Therapeutic Lead
- Nurse Prescriber
- Dr. Alpana Mair, Head of Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics Division at Scottish Government
- Dr. Martin Wilson, Consultant Geriatrician at NHS Highlands, Scotland

Suitable for Healthcare Professionals including:

- Hospital doctors in training and Consultants
- General Practitioners and GP trainees
- Geriatricians and trainee Geriatricians
- Nurses, Clinical Nurse Specialists, Nurse Prescribers and Advanced Nurse Practitioners
- Allied Health Professionals with an interest in prescribing
- Pharmacists
- Physician Associates
- Paramedics

TO REGISTER: complete the following form <https://forms.office.com/r/S5BfqWWaxE> or email nss.isimpathy@nhs.scot

For more information about iSIMPATHTY visit www.isimpathy.eu