

iSIMPATY Shared Learning Event

Date: Thursday 24th November, 2022

Venue: Hillgrove Hotel, Monaghan, Co. Monaghan, Ireland

Agenda:

09:00 Registration / Tea & Coffee

09:30	Event Welcome	Dr Alpana Mair
09:35	Welcome Address	Minister Stephen Donnelly - (Recorded Video)
09:45	Panel of Speakers – Patient Stories & Discussion	Project Pharmacists/Patients
10:15	Interim Findings from Initial Evaluation	Stuart Law - (Recorded Video)
10:30	Panel Discussion on Interim Findings	Dr Alpana Mair/Ciara Kirke/Professor Mike Scott

10:50 Comfort Break / Tea & Coffee

11:10	Guest Speaker – The Irish Longitudinal Study on Ageing (TILDA) findings/Polypharmacy	Dr Amanda Levan
11:40	Guest Speaker – Polypharmacy Presentation & Q&A Session	Professor Kathleen Bennett

12:10 Lunch

13:15	Health & Wellbeing Session	Dr Emily Kennedy
14:15	Workshop Sessions – (Will be appointed to attendees at the registration desk on day)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Patient Case Studies – a practical run-through of patient cases</li> <li>• Project Legacy - how do we share our story and make it matter?</li> </ul>	Dr Iain Wilson/Project Pharmacists Professor Mike Scott
15:00	Workshop & Discussion Session Feedback	Dr Alpana Mair/Ciara Kirke/ Professor Mike Scott
15:15	Summary & Event Closure	Ciara Kirke

15:30 Close

Speaker list:

Event Welcome	Dr Alpana Mair, Head of Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics, Scottish Government
Welcome Address	Minister Stephen Donnelly, Minister for Health, Department of Health, Ireland
Panel of Speakers – Patient Stories & Discussion	Project Pharmacists/Patients – Speakers TBC
Interim Findings from Initial Evaluation	Stuart Law, Head of Policy & Research, Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics, Scottish Government
Panel Discussion on Interim Findings	Dr Alpana Mair, Head of Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics, Scottish Government; Ciara Kirke, Clinical Lead, Medication Safety, Quality Improvement Division, Health Service Executive; Professor Mike Scott, Director of Medicines Optimisation Innovation Centre (MOIC), Northern Health and Social Care Trust
Guest Speaker – The Irish Longitudinal Study on Ageing (TILDA) findings/ Polypharmacy	Dr Amanda Levan, Consultant Geriatrician, St James’s Hospital, Health Service Executive
Guest Speaker – Polypharmacy Presentation & Q&A Session	Professor Kathleen Bennett, Associate Professor in Biostatistics, Division of Population Health Sciences and Head of Data Science Centre, Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland
Health & Wellbeing Session	Dr Emily Kennedy, Locality Lead Pharmacist & Respiratory Specialist Pharmacist, NHS Dumfries & Galloway
Workshop Session – Patient Case Studies	Dr Iain Wilson, GP Clinical Lead, Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics, Scottish Government; Project Pharmacists – Speakers TBC
Workshop Session – Project Legacy	Professor Mike Scott, Director of Medicines Optimisation Innovation Centre (MOIC), Northern Health and Social Care Trust
Workshop & Discussion Session Feedback	Dr Alpana Mair, Head of Effective Prescribing & Therapeutics, Scottish Government; Ciara Kirke, Clinical Lead, Medication Safety, Quality Improvement Division, Health Service Executive; Professor Mike Scott, Director of Medicines Optimisation Innovation Centre (MOIC), Northern Health and Social Care Trust
Summary & Event Closure	Ciara Kirke, Clinical Lead, Medication Safety, Quality Improvement Division, Health Service Executive